

29 Covered risks for the Homeowner's Policy

The Covered Risks are:

- 1. Someone else owns an interest in your title.
- 2. Someone else has rights affecting your title because of leases, contracts, or options.
- 3. Someone else claims to have rights affecting your title because of forgery or impersonation.
- 4. Someone else has an easement on the land.
- 5. Someone else has a right to limit your use of the land.
- 6. Your title is defective. Some of these defects are:
 - a. someone else's failure to have authorized a transfer or conveyance of your title.
 - b. someone else's failure to create a valid document by electronic means.
 - c. a document upon which your title is based is invalid because it was not properly signed, sealed, acknowledged, delivered or recorded.
 - d. a document upon which your title is based was signed using a falsified, expired, or otherwise invalid power of attorney.
 - e. a document upon which your title is based was not properly filed, recorded, or indexed in the public records.
 - f. a defective judicial or administrative proceeding.
- 7. Any of Covered Risks 1 through 6 occurring after the policy date.
- 8. Someone else has a lien on your title, including a:
 - a. lien of real estate taxes or assessments imposed on your title by a governmental authority that are due or payable, but unpaid;
 - b. mortgage;
 - c. judgment, state or federal tax lien;
 - d. charge by a homeowner's or condominium association; or
 - e. lien, occurring before or after the policy date, for labor and material furnished before the policy date.
- 9. Someone else has an encumbrance on your title.
- 10. Someone else claims to have rights affecting your title because of fraud, duress, incompetency or incapacity.
- 11. You do not have actual vehicular and pedestrian access to and from the land, based upon a legal right.
- 12. You are forced to correct or remove an existing violation of any covenant, condition or restriction affecting the land, even if the covenant, condition or restriction is excepted in Schedule B. However, you are not covered for any violation that relates to:
 - a. any obligation to perform maintenance or repair on the land; or
 - b. environmental protection of any kind, including hazardous or toxic conditions or substances unless there is a notice recorded in the public records, describing any part of the land, claiming a violation exists. Our liability for this covered risk is limited to the extent of the violation stated in that notice.

- 13. Your title is lost or taken because of a violation of any covenant, condition or restriction, which occurred before you acquired your title, even if the covenant, condition or restriction is excepted in Schedule B.

14. Because of an existing violation of a subdivision law or regulation affecting the land:
- a. you are unable to obtain a building permit;
 - b. you are required to correct or remove the violation; or
 - c. someone else has a legal right to, and does, refuse to perform a contract to purchase the land, lease it or make a mortgage loan on it.

The amount of your insurance for this covered risk is subject to your deductible amount and our maximum dollar limit of liability shown in Schedule A.

15. You are forced to remove or remedy your existing structures, or any part of them - other than boundary walls or fences - because any portion was built without obtaining a building permit from the proper government office. The amount of your insurance for this covered risk is subject to your deductible amount and our maximum dollar limit of liability shown in Schedule A.

16. You are forced to remove or remedy your existing structures, or any part of them, because they violate an existing zoning law or zoning regulation. If you are required to remedy any portion of your existing structures, the amount of your insurance for this covered risk is subject to your deductible amount and our maximum dollar limit of liability shown in Schedule A.

17. You cannot use the land because use as a single-family residence violates an existing zoning law or zoning regulation.

18. You are forced to remove your existing structures because they encroach onto your neighbor's land. If the encroaching structures are boundary walls or fences, the amount of your insurance for this covered risk is subject to your deductible amount and our maximum dollar limit of liability shown in Schedule A.

19. Someone else has a legal right to, and does, refuse to perform a contract to purchase the land, lease it or make a mortgage loan on it because your neighbor's existing structures encroach onto the land.

20. You are forced to remove your existing structures which encroach onto an easement or over a building set-back line, even if the easement or building set-back line is excepted in Schedule B.

21. Your existing structures are damaged because of the exercise of a right to maintain or use any easement affecting the land, even if the easement is excepted in Schedule B.

22. Your existing improvements (or a replacement or modification made to them after the policy date), including lawns, shrubbery or trees, are damaged because of the future exercise of a right to use the surface of the land for the extraction or development of minerals, water or any other substance, even if those rights are excepted or reserved from the description of the land or excepted in Schedule B.

23. Someone else tries to enforce a discriminatory covenant, condition or restriction that they claim affects your title which is based upon race, color, religion, sex, handicap, familial status, or national origin.

24. A taxing authority assesses supplemental real estate taxes not previously assessed against the land for any period before the policy date because of construction or a change of ownership or use that occurred before the policy date.

25. Your neighbor builds any structures after the policy date -- other than boundary walls or fences -- which encroach onto the land.

26. Your title is unmarketable, which allows someone else to refuse to perform a contract to purchase the land, lease it or make a mortgage loan on it.

27. Someone else owns an interest in your title because a court order invalidates a prior transfer of the title under federal bankruptcy, state insolvency, or similar creditors' rights laws.

28. The residence with the address shown in Schedule A is not located on the land at the policy date.

29. The map, if any, attached to this policy does not show the correct location of the land according to the public records.
